

ECHOES OF CEDARVILLE

JUNE 2015

Cedarville Area Historical Society

Clancy's Fancy at Museum June 16!

Clancy's Fancy, Stephenson County's favorite Irish band, will perform Tuesday evening, June 16, at the Cedarville Museum.

The four member group, first formed in 1988, plays Irish and American folk music, mostly traditional but with modern additions.

The program starts at 7:30 p.m. in the second floor LeRoy Wilson Theater. A simple one button elevator is available for physically handicapped visitors. Admission at the door is $7.

Free refreshments will be served after the performance. For more information call Jim Bade at 815-563-4485.

2015 Children's Book Awards Ceremony at Cedarville Museum

Winners of the 2015 Jane Addams Children's Book awards were announced Saturday, May 2, at the Cedarville Museum.

The honors, which carry a cash award and certificate, were first given in 1953 by the Jane Addams Peace Association to recognize outstanding children's books that promote peace, social justice, world community and the equality of the sexes and all races. JAPA is affiliated with the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, first headed by Jane Addams

The several awards were announced by Beth McGowan, Rockford, a member of the national committee that chose the winning titles.

As part of the program, Cedarville's Paul Fry, an authority on Addams, answered questions from the attendees about the 1935 Nobel Peace Prize recipient.

Special mention was made of the Rockford Public School 205 Montessori program for its use of nominated books as classroom teaching tools and its inclusion of diverse groups in the selection process.

Nominated books were provided to teachers through funds from PTOs and a grant from the Community Fund of Northern Illinois.

Time to Choose Your Society Programs

Tickets are now available for the remaining six historical society's 2015 Tuesday evening programs at the museum. Choose from this group or make it easy and attend all of them. All programs start at 7:30 p.m.

Antonio Castillo

Clancy's Fancy

On June 16 the Irish band known as Casey's Fancy will entertain with songs from the Emerald Isle, Scotland and the United States that you have come to know and love.

Mexican guitarist and vocalist Antonio Castillo has a large bag of Hispanic music that he will draw from when he appears on July 14.

Suzanne Crandall

Andy Dvorak

The four history programs are innovative in story telling. On Aug. 4, Andy Dvorak, history instructor at Highland Community College, will set the stage for the three first person narratives of the lives of Hull-House founders Jane Addams, Ellen Gates Starr and Julia Lathrop to be performed by Rockford actress Suzanne Crandall on Aug. 18, Sept. 1 and Sept. 15. You really want a ticket for all four to get the full story of the three women. $25 for all four, a savings of $3.
